SCHOOL ELECTIONS.

CITIZENS of Tonopah school district should get together for the purpose of selecting candidates for the three vacancies that will occur on the school board next month. The three trustees who have charge of the schools in Tonopah have turned in their resignations and the rest is left to the public. It remains to be seen what material is at the disposal of the citizens and parents and all the Bonanza has to say is that the office is one that should have some other requital than the kicks and complaints of everybody who feels disposed to criticize the conduct of the schools. This is the time for citizens to show what their judgment amounts to. The field is clear and there is no political bias or favoritism in connection with the trust. Only responsible citizens who have the welfare of the district at heart and who have shown a capacity for making a success of their own affairs should be trusted with the important duties that devolve on school trustees.

It is not a matter of political emolument and never has been. This is too late a day for making a change and precipitating the schools into the political arena. They should remain free from contamination of politics and partisanship and the election will be a test of what the parents of the district feel like doing. The district owns school property worth at a conservative estimate $80,000, and the welfare of 500 children will be in the hands of the new board. This election is pregnant with deep import to every father or mother of a family who takes an interest in the upbuilding and maintenance of the lofty standards adopted by the retiring board. It is a question whether the future of the schools will be committed to the hands of competent men and there should not be the slightest hesitation about reaching some positive understanding so the parents of the district will not have to lament idle inaction at some future day when they will be impotent to correct abuses or perversion of the best available modern methods.

The Manhattan Post thinks there must be money in the Tonopah newspaper business since the editor of this paper can take his dog to a hospital. We wish to state that a man who has a dumb friend and pet must have heart and the writer is willing to divide his last dollar with the poor unwhimpering animal that suffers in silence but speaks his pain in a melting gaze from eloquent eyes. It is not wealth but mercy that acts in such cases.

Carson City is always ready to pass the hat for the rest of the State to contribute to its adornment. The latest suggestion is that the taxpayers of Nevada erect a monument to Lincoln on the Capitol grounds. Better wait until the Capitol is removed to some permanent place.

Los Angeles thinks a special Providence is looking after that town and declares the recent tempest was a blessing in disguise for the 15,000 unemployed who are now furnished with pick and shovel with orders to go to it.

The Board of Lady Managers of the lamented Chicago exposition are still masticating the muslin over a discrepancy of $36,000 that has not been settled after twenty years.

Prof. O. K. McMurray, of the University of California, says the people's laws will displace constitutional law unless the courts get quicker action. That's O. K. McMurray.

Louis Hill, president of the Great Northern, gets off a good one when he says the climate of California is better for railroad presidents than for railroads.

Roosevelt has found a new river in Brazil. Probably Salt Creek which the colonel has been seeking for the last three years.

California is ruled by the glooms. A man in Sacramento who cut down a tree to let sunlight into his house was arrested.

"Aimless Vacillation" is the Wyoming interpretation of the Democratic doctrine of "Watchful waiting."

New York City spent a million clearing snow. Nevada will make a million out of its snowfall.

Huerta is peeved because John Bull is flirting with Carranza.

WHEN PA IS SICK

When Pa is sick,
 He's scared to death,
 An' ma an' us
 Just hold our breath.
 He crawls in bed,
 An' puffs and grunts,
 An' does all kinds
 Of crazy stunts.
 He wants Doc Brown,
 An' mighty quick;
 For when Pa's ill,
 He's awful sick.
 He gasps and groans,
 An' sort o' sighs,
 He talks so queer,
 An' rolls his eyes.
 Ma jumps an' runs,
 An' all of us
 An' all the house
 Is in a fuss.
 An' peace an' joy
 Is mighty scarce—
 When Pa is sick,
 It's something fierce.
 —Monroe Appeal.

WHEN MA IS SICK

When Ma is sick,
 She pegs away;
 She's quiet, though,
 Not much to say.
 She goes right on
 A-doin' things,
 An' sometimes laughs,
 Er even sings,
 She says she don't
 Feel extra well,
 But then it's just
 A kind o' spell,
 She'll be all right
 To-morrow, sure.
 A good old sleep
 Will be the cure.
 An' Pa he sniffs
 An' makes no kick.
 For women folks
 Is always sick,
 An' ma she smiles,
 Lets on she's glad—
 When Ma is sick,
 It ain't so bad.
 —Monroe Appeal.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER.

A large and appreciative audience visited this popular place of amusement last evening and enjoyed a pleasant hour of entertainment. Tonight's program will consist of Warner's three-reel feature entitled "The Highwayman," portraying the thrilling adventures of a bandit who robbed for revenge and justice. It is a powerful three-part feature production adapted from the stage play depicting the west as it is—a story full of exciting situations and one that will hold its audience spell-bound from beginning to end. There will also be shown a Selig comedy, "Doc Yak's Christmas." This story deals with the children's favorite, "Santa Claus." The "Doc" has been "done" so often that his feelings are due him. How he gets even is an amusing story and one that will make you laugh.

On Wednesday the big California Rodeo in five reels, including both the exhibition at Salinas and also that of Emeryville, Cal.—Adv.

PASTIME THEATER.

The Pastime theater opened last night with a capacity house for three shows and turned away hundreds who were unable to force their way into the place. For the first and second shows the house was mobbed and, for a time, it seemed as though the doors would be broken down by the eager multitude in their anxiety to see the new set of pictures. Everything went along smoothly, the projector worked all right and there was not a single flicker on the screen. The subjects were new and the themes were original. During the performance applause frequently broke forth. The five films included comedy, educational, drama and a couple of features.

The orchestra was appreciated. The regular electric lights in the body of the house did not arrive in time to be installed but this defect will be remedied today. The program will include two shows each afternoon and three shows each evening, beginning at 7 o'clock.

W. E. Butler, the operator, is the designer and inventor of the famous Formostat, used to reduce electric bills and to improve the quality of the picture. He has just returned from a tour with the Edison talking pictures. After the show Warren Brothers entertained the Tonopah brass band with a luncheon at the Tonopah grill, where the hosts were toasted and success pledged by the musicians of the camp. The concert solos by Arthur Guerin at the first performance every evening is a good feature. Adv.
